Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and other investments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase are reported as cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents representing assets of the endowment and similar funds are included in long-term investments.

Contributions Receivable

Contributions, which include unconditional promises to give (pledges), are recognized as revenues in the period received at their net present value, less an allowance for estimated uncollectible amounts.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The College's investments and other financial instruments are reported at fair value. Fair value represents the price that would be received upon the sale of an asset or paid upon the transfer of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Investments are then classified and disclosed in one of the following categories based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety:

Level I – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities, at the reporting date, without adjustment. Market price is data generally obtained from relevant exchange or dealer markets. Level II – Pricing inputs, including broker quotes, are generally those other than exchange quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date. Level III – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and includes situations where a) there is minimal, if any, market activity for the investment and b) the inputs used in determination of fair value require significant management judgment or estimation.

Inputs broadly refer to the assumptions that market participants use to make valuation decisions, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may include price information, volatility statistics, specific and broad credit data,

The College performs additional procedures including due diligence reviews on its investments in investment companies and other procedures with respect to the capital account or NAV provided to ensure conformity with US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). The College has assessed factors including, but not limited to, managers' compliance with the Fair Value Measurement standard, price transparency and valuation procedures in place, the ability to redeem NAV at the measurement date and existence of certain redemption restrictions at the measurement date.

Cash and Equivalents

The carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.

Short-Term Investments

Short-term investments include cash equivalents and fixed income investments with maturities between three and twelve months. Short-term investments are valued using observable market data to the degree that they can be valued based on quoted market prices in active markets. The majority of these short-term investments are fixed income instruments.

Long-lived assets to be held and used are reviewed for impairments whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the related carrying amount may not be recoverable.

Deferred Revenue

Revenues received prior to the end of the fiscal year which relate to the following fiscal year are recorded and reflected in student deposits and deferred revenue.

Deposit with Trustees

Deposits with the trustee associated with the College's debt obligations are invested in cash, money market and various government securities according to the requirements established by the associated bond agreements.

Fund Raising Expenses

Tax Status

Direct expenses for fundraising were $4,528 in 2016 and $4,207 in 2015.

The College has been granted tax-exempt status as a non-profit organization und	er Section 501(c) (3) of the

Net bond prer	niu	m, discounts a	and issuance cos	ts						8,403
Total outstand	ling	g debt								$ 133,663

The long-term debt includes various tax-exempt bond issues. All of the bonds bear interest at fixed rates that were determined on their original sale date. Interest is payable semi-annually. In all cases, the bonds were issued by the Pennsylvania Higher Educational Facilities Authority pursuant to an indenture with a bond trustee. The Authority then loaned the proceeds to the College via a loan agreement. For the purpose of securing the payments to bondholders, in these agreements the College had pledged its unrestricted revenues. In addition, under the terms of the agreements, the College is required to comply with various financial covenants. The College was in compliance with such covenants as of May 31, 2016 and May 31, 2015.

In May 2007, the College issued the Series 2007 bonds primarily to currently refinance the Series 1997 bond issue.

In May 2010, the College issued the Series 2010 bonds primarily to currently refinance the Series 1999 bond issue.

In November 2010, the College issued the Series 2010A bonds primarily to refinance a portion of the Series 2002 bond issue.

In February 2012, the College issued the Series 2012 bonds primarily to currently refinance the Series 2009 bond issue.

In November 2012, the College issued the Series 2012A bonds primarily to currently refinance the remainder of the Series 2002 bond issue. There was also approximately $5,000 of proceeds used for the construction, improvement, renovation and equipping of various College facilities.

In July 2014, the College issued the Series 2014 bonds to refinance a portion of the Series 2012 bond issue and to fund various construction, improvement, renovation and equipping projects expected to include the renovation and expansion of a student residential facility and the College's primary science facility. The Series 2014 Bonds legally defeased $21,780 of the outstanding Series 2012 Bonds.

Derivative Activity

As of May 31, 2016 the College has no swap agreements or other derivatives.
